

Wagner College To Offer Summer Programs For Kids And Teens

Monday, June 20, 2011

0

0

STATEN ISLAND, N.Y. — Wagner College will offer a wide variety of specialty summer programs and camps for kids and teens, ages 6 to 17. Programs run from July 5 through Aug. 18 at the Wagner Campus on Grymes Hill. Full and half-day camps are available.

Specialty programs include:

- ACT Theatre Dramatic/Comedic Scene Study
- ACT Theatre Around the World Camp
- ACT Littlest Actors Camp
- Introduction to Filmmaking
- Video Game Design
- Graphic Design
- Lego Robotics
- Junior Lego Robotics
- “Mad Science”
- Teen Career Explorations
- Medicine & Health
- Law & Justice
- College Prep Workshop
- Event Planning 101
- Mixed Media Crafts

Wagner College is located on Howard Avenue at Campus Road, Grymes Hill, on Staten Island. Drop off and pick up for summer programs is directly on campus. Wagner staff will meet and greet all campers at their vehicles as they arrive and depart. Full day campers enjoy daily lunch in the air-conditioned college cafeteria, which has become a favorite of past campers.

For online information about Wagner’s summer programs and camps, go to www.wagner.edu/external/summercamps2011. For more information, call Wagner’s External Programs Office at 1-718-390-3221, or send an email to external@wagner.edu.